

Seven promoted at Ogier in the Cayman Islands

News - 01/08/2023

Ogier continues to develop and reward home-grown talent with the announcement of seven promotions in its Cayman Islands office.

In the legal team, Holly Johnston has graduated from Ogier's in-house articulated clerk training programme to become a qualified associate in the Dispute Resolution team.

From Ogier's corporate and fiduciary business, Ogier Global, Rachel Ebanks has progressed to corporate administrator, and Georgia Scott, from Ogier Regulatory Consulting, has been promoted to client director.

From the firm's Business Services team, Ivana Cardoza has progressed to legal secretary, Alexander West has been promoted to IT service desk manager, Mallory Warnock has been promoted to manager, regulatory operations, and Kendra Rankin has been promoted to financial crime senior analyst.

Practice partner James Bergstrom said: "Giving everyone at Ogier the opportunity to develop is a fundamental part of our people first culture. This is well-deserved recognition for Ivana, Alexander, Mallory, Kendra, Rachel, Georgia and Holly and we look forward to their continued success with the firm."
