

The 7th annual Cambridge Forum on International Enforcement of Judgements & Awards will consist of roundtable discussions for a select group of specialists from around the world including private practitioners, investigators, forensic accountants, insolvency practitioners, funders and in-house counsel in the area of enforcement of judgements and awards. Together, the group will candidly discuss common issues, exchange ideas and resolve challenges faced on behalf of clients.