

INSOL International San Diego will be providing an exceptional technical programme, ancillary meetings and plenty of opportunities to meet with colleagues old and new.

Gemma Bellfield will be Co-Chairing the Offshore Meeting on Wednesday 22 May, with renowned experts in offshore jurisdictions for a deep exploration of the latest trends and strategies shaping this dynamic field. Romauld Johnson will be joining one of the sessions 'Let battle commence!' An educational competition between the up-and-coming stars of the legal and accounting professions who will have the opportunity to present their case and persuade the audience why theirs is the most important case of the year.

If you would like to connect at the conference, please get in touch directly.