

Ogier welcomes two new partners to top tier Jersey Corporate team

News - 07/12/2021

Alexander Curry and Oliver Richardson have been promoted to partner, further strengthening Ogier's Corporate team in Jersey.

Alexander's corporate practice focuses on equity capital markets, cross border M&A and private equity (PE) transactions. He acts for a number of the world's leading PE houses and has particular experience in natural resources, real estate, healthcare and fintech sectors as well as providing Private Wealth and Family Office clients with structuring and investment advice.

Clients describe the Legal 500 Rising Star as "very responsive and knowledgeable," "a pleasure to deal with," and "incredibly strong."

Oliver (Olly) is a Legal 500 Rising Star and Lawyer of the Year finalist, whose legal career started at Ogier as a bursary student before he trained and practiced at Jones Day in London. Oliver advises many of the world's leading financial institutions and corporates on a range of high value and complex Jersey and BVI corporate and finance transactions.

Clients say Oliver is "very impressive", "highly skilled beyond his years" and "a smart, personable lawyer with a stellar reputation." Oliver recently received the company law prize from the Jersey Law Society after scoring the highest mark in the Jersey law exams.

"It's been a strong year for our Corporate team, retaining our top tier rankings in the Legal 500 and Chambers UK guides. Both Alexander and Olly are valued members of the team who have really proved their technical expertise and commitment to client service," said head of Ogier's Corporate team in Jersey Raulin Amy.

"Both have contributed significantly to the culture and achievements of the Jersey Corporate team and their progression to partnership demonstrates Ogier's focus on developing the fantastic talent in our teams."
