

Hosted by the International Bar Association, this conference is one of the industry's most prominent events that brings together top legal, business and fund professionals from around the globe to analyse the current market and future of private investment funds, the prospect of changes and updates to regulatory and tax regimes, among other timely topics.

Ogier is sponsoring this conference and will have representatives from our global Funds team in attendance. If you would like to connect with them, please reach out.