Background and experience

Aoife received both her undergraduate degree (Bachelor of Corporate Law) and postgraduate degree (LLB) from National University of Ireland, Galway. She proudly holds Certificates in Mediation, GDPR & Data Protection, and Anti Bribery and Corruption, which she completed while living and working in Toronto, Canada.

In Canada, Aoife worked as a junior accountant for Brookfield Financial, a global investment bank specialising in real estate. Prior to joining Ogier, she worked for a large Dublin law firm in the Commercial Litigation and Banking Department as well as for a small general practice firm specialising in litigation.
