

Josephine Howe, Partner in the Jersey Private Wealth team, will be attending this invite only event. The conference will consist of a day and a half of discussions with practitioners discussing the various topics decided upon by the Advisory Board with input from attendees.