

Catherine Moore, Partner in the Guernsey Private Wealth team, will be attending this conference.

The annual ITPC Forum in the Channel Islands is for anyone interested in the world of trusts and wealth management. The conference provides a unique opportunity for attendees to learn from some of the leading experts in the field, as well as to network with peers and colleagues from around the globe.