

The Association of Luxembourg Fund Industry (ALFI) will be travelling to Frankfurt to hold its annual roadshow with German-speaking fund industry experts. Discussions will address topics like regulation around cross-border distribution, the importance of ESG factors in the financial industry or the digital transformation in practice.

Milan Hauber, Managing Associate in the Investment Funds team in Luxembourg, will be attending this event on 21 June.

Contact us if you would like to talk to Milan at the event.