

Catherine Moore will be attending and speaking at this conference. The programme covers a broad range of topics of interest to multi-jurisdictional practitioners and those with an interest in cross-border issues. The conference will also start with a session with the leaders of the Bars of the Czech Republic, England & Wales and Ireland.

Catherine will be speaking on the 'Challenges faced by Trustees of off-shore Trusts'.