

PCD Club NextGen events allow young professionals from across the private wealth sector to attend well executed networking events to meet their peers, hone their networking skills and to meet like minded individuals from leading firms in law, tax, accountancy, banking, wealth management & real estate.

If you would like to connect at the event, please get in touch with Tehya directly.