

We are pleased to be the Gold Sponsor for the Private Client Dining Club New York Dinner for 2023.

The event will include a panel discussion titled "The Cayman Option - Residency, Real Estate and Structuring Update for private client advisors". This will be followed by a networking reception and dinner.

PCD Club networking events are attended by leading professional advisors dealing with high net worth clients. Members and guests are part of the private wealth industry and are focused on providing tax and legal advice; private banking and wealth management services; trust and corporate services; real estate advice and finance.

Global Senior Partner Rachael Reynolds KC, Partner Anthony Partridge and Counsel Cline Glidden will be hosting.

Contact us if you would like to connect.