

Partner Deborah Barker Roye will be attending the next PCD Club Networking Dinner in Miami on 26 October.

PCD Club networking dinners are attended by leading professional advisors dealing with high net worth clients. The majority of members and guests come from some of private wealth's key segments: tax and legal advice; private banking and wealth management; trust and corporate services; real estate advice and finance.