

Ogier Head of Sustainable Investment Consulting Leonie Kelly will be speaking at the “Building and Upskilling the Next Generation of ESG Talent” panel discussion.

ReThink HK provides insight and inspiration for driving sustainable development across globally recognised risk and opportunity topics, from a Hong Kong context.

ReThink HK has established effective and collaborative partnerships with organisations committed to driving awareness and action around sustainable development; professional trade and industry bodies, chambers of commerce, environmental and social impact groups, media platforms and Hong Kong-registered charities.