

The Caribbean Regional Compliance Association (CRCA) is a not for profit forum comprised of professional regional compliance associations. Ogier is pleased to partner with the CRCA for this year's conference being hosted in the Cayman Islands.

On Day One, Partner Michael Killourhy will join a panel titled "All Roads Lead to Meta-Verse: Crypto and Digital Assets" and Partner Chris Wall will discuss "Leading through Innovation: Crypto". On Day Two, Compliance Manager T'sa James-Hodge will moderate a panel titled "Leading is Risky Business".

Members of the Ogier Regulatory Consulting team, Client Directors Georgia Scott and Gavin Baxendale, along with Senior Consultant Tara Campbell will also be attending.
