

Ogier is delighted to be a gold sponsor at this year's Guernsey Private Wealth Forum.

This year's event is titled Changing Families in a Changing World and will explore the nature of change and cultural dynamics, examine the non-nuclear family, and discuss the importance of the next generation. Other themes include sustainable finance, philanthropy, good governance and succession planning.

Please get in touch with us directly if you would like to connect at the event.