

The China Roadshow 2023 will provide an opportunity for industry experts and market participants in the asset management arena to come together to discuss critical issues impacting China and Hong Kong's capital markets and investment fund dynamics.

The event will feature insightful discussions on fund raising, fund formation, and exit opportunities in both capital markets and secondary markets.

Ogier Partner Nicholas Plowman will join a panel titled 'Recent updates in fund formation' and Legal Manager Matthew Howlett will join the "Digital Assets" panel.

Contact us if you would like to connect.