

We are pleased to sponsor the ALFI the Taxes for Investment Funds seminar on 24 October in Luxembourg.

This technical seminar provides first-hand insights from tax experts on the impact of upcoming rules on investment funds and investment fund structures.

The seminar will cover the following topics:

- the concept of substance in investment fund structures and asset management business models: the potential impacts of the draft "Unshell" Directive, the influence of case law and of the increasing use of teleworking;
- the global minimum taxation: the OECD Pillar Two Model Rules and the corresponding EU Directive introduce new and complex rules that investment fund structures will very soon have to consider;
- subscription tax for investment funds: the past and the future, current issues for asset managers.

Our Luxembourg Tax experts, Partner Aurélie Clementz and Counsel Hadrien Brémon will attend the event and would be happy to meet you there.

Contact us if you would like to talk to us at the event.
