

This seminar will hear practitioners from France, Jersey, Italy, USA, Spain and England impart their specialist knowledge.

Henry Wickham will be speaking on the panel which will consider, amongst other points, the best practical approach for administering cross-border estates, including worked examples.

Please contact Henry if you would like to connect at the seminar.