

The International Trademark Association (INTA) will host their annual Leadership Conference in Houston Texas for 2023. This event is invitation only.

Following her recent appointment to INTA's Trademark Office Practices Committee, Ogier Partner Sophie Peat will be attending.

The Trademark Office Practices Committee is tasked with focusing on evaluating and recommending changes to improve trade mark office practices, procedures, operations, and regulations at the national, regional, and international levels.

The Leadership Conference agenda will explore key topics and emerging issues—from IP in the new digital ecosystem to fostering an inclusive workplace.

Please contact Sophie if you would like to connect.
