Background and experience

Ryan has extensive experience in advising domestic and international clients on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, complex and contentious corporate matters, joint venture and shareholders' agreements, partnership arrangements, group reorganisations, general company law queries (e.g. use of the summary approval procedure, capital reductions and mergers by absorptions) and commercial agreements.

Before joining Ogier in 2023, Ryan worked for over ten years in the Dublin office of a large international law firm, where he was part of the corporate and equity capital markets team.

Ryan studied law at University College Cork before qualifying as solicitor in 2016.
