

Partner David Welford will be attending the PCD Club Networking Dinner in Dubai on 2 November.

PCD Club networking dinners are attended by leading professional advisors dealing with high net worth clients. The majority of members and guests come from some of private wealth's key segments: tax and legal advice; private banking and wealth management; trust and corporate services; real estate advice and finance.