Background and experience

Sophie is an associate in our Banking and Finance team in Luxembourg. Before joining Ogier, Sophie worked as an in-house counsel for an international bank in Luxembourg, advising on a broad range of matters involving contract law and cross border transactions.

She was also a governance and corporate officer for an international bank in Luxembourg advising on corporate and regulatory matters.

Sophie graduated with a Master's degree specialising in International Commercial Law from the University of Queensland (Australia) and a Master's degree specialising in Business Law from the University of Toulouse 1 (France).

Sophie speaks fluent French and English.
