

The 7th annual Cambridge Forum on International Enforcement of Judgements & Awards will consist of roundtable discussions for a select group of specialists from around the world including private practitioners, investigators, forensic accountants, insolvency practitioners, funders and inhouse counsel in the area of enforcement of judgements and awards. Together, the group will candidly discuss common issues, exchange ideas and resolve challenges faced on behalf of clients.