

CJI London, now in its 14th year, is an international event that gathers more than 550 business aviation decision-makers and dealmakers from over 40 countries, for two days of in-depth content, robust debate, focused discussion and lots of opportunities to connect with industry colleagues during over 25 hours of hosted networking.