

LUMPI stands for Luxembourg Meeting for Private Markets Investments and is a one-day German-language conference in Luxembourg for institutional investors from the DACH region.

On Thursday, 29 February, Managing Associate, Milan Hauber will be attending the conference.

The conference is packed with content that addresses not only the investment teams but also the middle office function, be it regulatory, ESG, tax, risk management or compliance. In addition to the specialist lectures and training content, the event offers the opportunity to network with like-minded people, as well as the exchange of information with experts in the industry.

Don't hesitate to get in touch with Milan if you would like to arrange a meeting.
