Background and experience

Before joining Ogier, Ajda was part of the investment funds team of an international law firm in Luxembourg where she worked on set-ups of alternative investment funds and advised several asset managers on fund management related matters. She was also seconded to the in-house legal team of major asset managers in Luxembourg.

She has been working for law firms since 2010 in fund formation and corporate transactions, with particular experience on cross-border merger and acquisitions.

Ajda completed her Master of Law degree (LLM) at the Queen Mary University of London with the Success Scholarship Programme. She is qualified in Turkey and currently in the process to be admitted as a solicitor of England and Wales.

Ajda speaks English, German and Turkish and has some basic knowledge of French.
