

Ogier is delighted to be exclusive sponsor for the first in the Jersey Finance Women in Alternatives bunch series which takes place in London on Tuesday 26 March.

The purpose of these by invitation only events for female professionals in the alternative investments and private markets sector in Jersey and London is to share insights, discuss challenges and emerging trends and engage in conversations on pivotal topics.

This is a great opportunity for women working in alternative assets to connect and collaborate.