

Presented by the Cayman International Reinsurance Companies Association, the ReConnect conference is the first dedicated reinsurance conference in the Cayman Islands. In its inaugural year, the conference is directed at both veterans and newcomers to the Cayman Islands' reinsurance community.

Counsel Cline Glidden will be presenting on Why Cayman and How to Establish a Foundation for Success, including relocation topics such as the Cayman Islands real estate purchase process and residency by investment.