Background and experience

Constantin has more than a decade of experience advising lenders and borrowers in cross-border and domestic transactions, as well as insolvency and restructuring, corporate law, securitisation and capital markets matters. His clients include international banks and operational companies, private equity funds and European international financial institutions.

Before joining Ogier, Constantin was in the banking team of a leading international law firm, where he advised on acquisition finance, fund financings, real estate finance, syndicated and bilateral bank lending (Loan Market Association based, including lending governed by Luxembourg and New York law), as well as New York/Euro bonds financings. His experience includes advising on Nielsen Holdings' US$16 billion buyout by a private equity consortium via bond issuances and subsequent group refinancing and restructuring, advising a major German bank on the Luxembourg aspects of a German law governed Euro 282 million facility agreement to refinance/finance the acquisition of a real estate in Berlin, and advising a major Swiss investment group focusing on energy infrastructure on several complex financings in respect of projects in Spain, Italy and Germany.

Constantin founded the working group 'Financing in Private Equity' for the Luxembourg Private Equity Association (LPEA), he is also a member of the Luxembourg Bankers' Association (ABBL) and its restructuring and insolvency group. He is an in-demand speaker at industry events and a regular contributor to leading industry publications, including Inhouse Lawyer Magazine, the LPEA magazine and AGEFI.

Constantin has as Master in European Law from the University of Paris 1 Pantheon-Sorbonne, a Master of Studies from the University of Oxford, a PhD in comparative law from the Université Jean Moulin (Lyon III), and a graduate of the Paris Bar School
