

The CLO Symposium connects CLO investors with the most important arrangers, managers and advisors in global structured finance to help them deploy capital and achieve investment goals. It provides an outlook on the major trends in both the US and European CLO market, looking at hot topics in primary and secondary opportunities.

Michael Carroll will be attending from Ogier.