

The 39th International Bar Association (IBA) International Financial Law Conference will take place in Dublin from 15 - 17 May 2024.

This event, presented by the Banking and Financial Law Committee and the Securities Committee, brings together legal professionals from around the world to discuss key topics including credit funds, individual accountability, whistleblowing, FDI screening rules, DORA, AI and legal tech, diversity on boards, and much more.

Ogier Partner Oisin McClenaghan will be speaking at the event. Delphine Gomes will be attending.

Contact us, if you would like to connect.