

This event is a highlight in the international funds and asset management industry calendar and attracts over 500 participants from across the investment funds community.

The agenda will include thought-provoking and informative presentations, keynote talks and panel discussions from internationally respected industry experts, while a full day of networking opportunities will run alongside the agenda in the exhibition area.

Oisín McClenaghan and Michael Carroll will be attending. Contact us, if you would like to connect.