

Ogier's Dispute Resolution team in Luxembourg handles complex, international and high value disputes. We regularly advise on technical, strategic and procedural aspects across the spectrum of contentious commercial issues and disputes.

Our team's experience spans cross-border, multi-million and multi-billion dollar disputes across Europe, the Middle East, Asia and the US. We resolve disputes via negotiation, mediation, arbitration or in court.

Ogier's Luxembourg specialists act for international clients on a wide range of civil and commercial matters. We also advise on regulatory matters.

Our Dispute Resolution services

Commercial disputes

Including debt recovery, fraud and asset tracing claims, freezing and other injunctions and enforcement of foreign judgments.

Corporate disputes

Claims against directors, shareholder disputes, malpractice and professional negligence.

Contentious trusts

Breach of trust claims, administrative applications, claims by and against beneficiaries and trustees and protectors and Hastings-Bass applications.

Restructuring and insolvency

Winding up and cross-border insolvency applications, restructuring applications, liquidation, negligence and partnership disputes.

Financial services disputes

Including funds, banking and insurance claims and claims by investors and creditors.

Regulatory advice

Including assisting our clients in case of dawn raids from any of the Luxembourg regulators.

Alternative dispute resolution

Arbitration, mediation and all other forms of alternative dispute resolution.

Property related disputes

Including planning, construction, landlord and tenant and environmental claims.

Real estate

Including commercial leases and development contracts.

White collar crime

Addressing issues such as fraud and regulatory investigations.