

Ogier's Real Estate Finance team in Jersey advise Cheyne Capital on its joint venture acquisition of 65 Fleet Street

Deals - 17/05/2024

Ogier advised global alternative investment manager Cheyne Capital Management (UK) LLP in a joint venture with leading real estate investor Dominus, which involved the acquisition of 65 Fleet Street in the City of London.

Working with lead counsel DLA Piper, Ogier advised on the real estate financing and corporate aspects associated with the acquisition which will contribute to the revitalisation of Fleet Street and the City of London's Destination City Plan.

"We were delighted to assist Cheyne and work with DLA Piper on this exciting project which seeks to benefit the local community while minimising its environmental impact" said lead partner Katrina Edge.

The Ogier team also included managing associate Jennifer Cox and associate Paul Hadden.

Further details of the acquisition are outlined in the Cheyne Capital and Dominus joint press release, found here: Dominus and Cheyne Capital announce acquisition of 65 Fleet Street.
