Background and experience

Kate has a particular specialism in professional services marketing, with previous roles managing internal and external communications at two leading offshore law firms before she joined Ogier in 2015 to lead the firm's brand refresh, a project that won the award for Best Rebrand at Citywealth's inaugural Brand Management and Reputation Awards in 2016. The firm's website, www.ogier.com, gained the silver award for best website the same year.

Working within Ogier's Business Services team, Kate provides PR and communications support to each of Ogier's divisions and jurisdictions. As well as focusing on brand development, digital marketing and thought leadership, Kate has previously led Ogier's internal communications and CSR programme.

A qualified marketer and journalist, Kate was named Woman of the Year: Business Services at Citywealth's Powerwomen Awards 2017.
