

The IR Global Annual Conference in Paris will be welcoming members from across the globe and hosting the bespoke Rising Stars program for the brightest talents from member firms.

The conference will be a fantastic opportunity to get to know your colleagues better from around the world and develop relationships with new business partners in a focused, enjoyable environment.

IR Global members will take part in various networking and breakout sessions, hear from world-renowned speakers, enjoy a drinks reception, and luxury networking dinner.

Dominic Conlon will be attending. Contact us, if you would like to connect.
