

As well as offering a business-friendly environment with robust infrastructure, liberal trade policies, and a commitment to innovation, Dubai consistently ranks as one of the best cities to live.

Its geographical positioning bridges the East and the West, making it a strategic hub for international trade and an attractive location for regional headquarters of multinational companies.

The unique mix of global and local influences in the United Arab Emirates demands service providers with deep regional knowledge. Understanding both local industry specifics and cultural nuances is crucial for those entering the market, ensuring successful navigation and partnership building.

Ogier simplifies Dubai relocations with comprehensive services, leveraging our strong network of tax advisors for both inbound and outbound tax guidance, seamless corporate and bank account establishment, employment and dependency visa processing, guidance on educational institutions, and introductions to real estate agencies for property purchasing.

Ogier Global's team in Dubai can help with the corporate aspects associated to relocating to Dubai, acting as a single point of contact, project manager or concierge services provider, and facilitating introductions to trusted advisors.

Relocating your business to Dubai

Incentives such as no personal income tax and corporate tax exemptions, particularly in free zones designed for foreign businesses, has positioned Dubai as an attractive destination for both startups and established companies looking for growth and investment opportunities in the Middle East and beyond.

Whether you need help with business or fund manager relocation, or both, Ogier's multi-disciplinary relocations experts can guide you through moving to Dubai. They advise on establishing substance, taking you through each stage of the business lifecycle.

In the UAE, our services are tailored to the country's unique mix of global and local influences. We specialise in the incorporation and establishment of both regulated and unregulated entities within the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC) and Abu Dhabi Global Market (ADGM), serving a diverse clientele from fund and asset managers to financial advisors and brokerage firms.

Ogier Global can assist with regulated and unregulated entity setup, bank account opening, and more.

Relocating your family to Dubai

The city of Dubai offers safety and a high standard of living, making it a wonderful place for your family to live. If you're moving with family, it's important to make it easy for them to join you. Ogier Global acts as a point of contact for services relating to property purchase, mortgage brokerage, education and school advice, health insurance and - if you are moving from the UK - tax implications of your move.
