

The third European Employment Summit will bring together senior in-house and private practice lawyers to explore the challenges and opportunities facing multinational employers and their counsel across the region.

Mary Gavin will be attending, Contact us, if you would like to connect.