

Kathryn Macken will be attending this year's PCD Club Guernsey networking dinner. These events are attended by leading professional advisors dealing with high net worth clients. The majority of members and guests come from some of the private wealth's key segments: tax & legal advice; private banking & wealth management; trust and corporate services; real estate advice & finance.

Please contact Kathryn directly if you would like to connect at the event.