

PCD Club NextGen events were created in 2022 to allow young professionals from across the private wealth sector to attend well executed networking events to meet their peers. These social and relaxed events are a great environment to hone your networking skills and experience with like minded individuals from leading firms in law, tax, accountancy, banking, wealth management & real estate.

Please contact Diana directly if you would like to connect at the event.