

This conference will be led by Radcliffe Chambers barristers along with special guest speakers.

The day will begin with a plenary session on Restructuring Plans. Following this session, there will be several breakout sessions providing practical guidance on offshore matters, issues of different income structures, claims without loss, and some case updates.

If you would like to connect at the event, please get in touch directly.