

In 2024...SLF Europe becomes...ABSF Global 2024

Now in its third year ABSF Global 2024 explores the key funding factors specialty lenders should consider from launch phase to maturity, and eventual exit via M&A or a public ABS deal. Investors will have a unique forum to meet emerging and established non-bank financial institutions originating a variety of financial assets and participate in a sector with an attractive yield and risk profile. Funds seeking to expand their lending activities beyond corporate direct lending will be able to showcase their platforms to an audience of potential borrowers and allocators alike.

Stuart Watson, Managing Director of Ogier Global in the UK, Cheryl Heslop, Associate Director of Ogier Global Jersey and Laura Holtham, Partner, Banking and Finance of Ogier in Ireland will be attending the conference.
