Background and experience

Before joining Ogier, Holly was a Chancery barrister at Parklane Plowden Chambers where she specialised in contentious trusts and probate matters. She regularly appeared in the High Court, but also has experience representing clients during alternative dispute resolution.

Holly was ranked as a 'Rising Star' by The Legal 500 in both 2024 and 2025 in respect of the Chancery, Probate and Tax category of the UK Bar.

Holly is a graduate of the University of Newcastle (England). She graduated in 2018 with First Class Honours, and was called to the Bar of England and Wales by the Honourable Society of Gray's Inn in July 2019.

Admitted in:

2024 - British Virgin Islands

2019 - England and Wales (non practising)
