

The rapid expansion and success of UAE foundations in structuring local assets prompts an important inquiry: should these structures be leveraged for organizing international assets as part of succession planning? This question extends beyond local families to encompass foreign families, high net worth individuals and entrepreneurs establishing their presence in the MENA region while maintaining investments worldwide.

James Campbell and Katherine Neal will be attending the STEP Arabia Conference in Dubai. Please contact them directly if you would like to connect at the event.