

"NextGen Leader" Chris Hards joins the Ogier partnership in Guernsey

News - 01/10/2024

Guernsey trusts and foundations expert Chris Hards has been promoted to partner at Ogier.

Chris, who was recently recognised as a rising star of the private client profession in the 2024 eprivateclient NextGen Leaders list, progressed through Ogier's partner development programme.

Chris advises on all aspects of trust and foundation law to individuals, fiduciaries and other service providers. As part of Ogier's multi-disciplinary Trusts Advisory Group, his experience extends to both contentious and non-contentious matters of Guernsey trust law. He also advises on international and domestic pensions and employment incentive and benefit plans.

Global head of Private Wealth at Ogier Matt Guthrie said: "Chris is described by his clients as 'a credit not just to the firm but to the profession' and he has a very loyal following both within Guernsey and without. We are delighted to see Chris, who has been with Ogier since 2017, join the partnership and proud to continue to promote from within the firm."
