

Ogier Regulatory Consulting welcomes Jamie Biddle as director

News - 15/10/2024

Ogier Regulatory Consulting is pleased to welcome Jamie Biddle as a director in Jersey. Jamie brings a rich background in handling complex regulatory matters, enforcement investigations, and offering guidance across multiple jurisdictions.

His contributions have significantly influenced various sectors within financial services, delivering unparalleled insights into the Jersey Financial Services Commission's (JFSC's) settlement process and civil penalties. Recognised by the Legal 500, Jamie is acclaimed for his ability to assist clients facing intricate regulatory issues in the financial sector.

Prior to joining Ogier, Jamie co-founded and served as a director at Oben Regulatory Limited, showcasing his skill in managing enforcement and criminal investigations, and providing counsel on deferred prosecution agreements.

With a robust legal foundation, Jamie now turns his attention to regulatory services as part of the Ogier Regulatory Consulting team, promising unparalleled advisory support.

Commenting on the appointment, Tui Iti, Global Head of Ogier Regulatory Consulting, stated: "Jamie's wealth of experience and nuanced understanding of regulatory frameworks are an asset to our team. His track record in resolving complex issues will benefit our high quality advisory services. We are excited about the depth of knowledge Jamie brings to Ogier Regulatory Consulting."

Jamie's appointment underscores Ogier Regulatory Consulting's dedication to excellence and its commitment to providing clients with top-tier regulatory support and guidance.
