

Ogier advises JD Property on the acquisition of LiFung Centre in Hong Kong

Deals - 06/11/2024

Ogier's Corporate law team in Hong Kong acted as BVI counsel to JD Property on its acquisition of LiFung Centre from London-based firm M&G Real Estate.

JD Property is a leading infrastructure investment and asset management platform and a part of the Chinese e-commerce company JD.com. Its business includes investment, development and asset management of logistics parks, business parks and data centres. LiFung Centre is a 487,350 square foot logistics property located in Shatin, Hong Kong.

The Ogier team was led by partner Cecilia Li, with support from the firm's global head of Corporate Nathan Powell, associate Randa Leung and legal manager Kingston Tang. The team worked closely with JD Property's Hong Kong counsel, DLA Piper.
