Background and experience

Daniel's work encompasses the preparation of estate schedules, bond searches, title and boundary investigation and site visits.

Daniel's clients range from commercial investors to first-time buyers, as well as those whose needs are expanding or down-sizing.

Having worked for two other firms before joining Ogier in July 2016, Daniel has developed a methodical, hands-on and practical approach to conveyancing and is recognised for his efficient and friendly approach to dealing with all the clients in order to meet their goals.
