Background and experience

Lawrie is a fellow of the Chartered Governance Institute and has more than 20 years of experience in the offshore finance sector with the majority of his career being focused exclusively on the setup and on-going administration of offshore real estate holding structures.

Lawrie sits on the boards of various real estate holding vehicles in both executive and non-executive capacities and is involved in the management of various UK and Pan-European assets across multiple sectors including retail, office, student accommodation and logistics.

Lawrie is also a board director of Ogier Global (Jersey) Limited, and plays an important role in the strategic and operational management of the Jersey regulated business.
